The Ascension of the Lord
by Tissot, 1858

ASCENSION SUNDAY

40 days after Jesus rose from the dead He ascended into Heaven. 'To ascend' means 'to go up,' and this is how Jesus left his friends' sight. Before He ascended into Heaven, Jesus promised that He would be with us always. He keeps this promise in many different ways.

Matthew 28:16-20 Gospel for Ascension Sunday, 24 May 2020

The eleven disciples set out for Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had arranged to meet them. When they saw him they fell down before him, though some hesitated. Jesus came up and spoke to them. He said, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, make disciples of all the nations; baptise them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teach them to observe all the commands I gave you. And know that I am with you always; yes, to the end of time.'
